JOHNROBINSON'STHE PION EER SHOW OF AMERICA.

To make an assertion is easy, to and dignity of the incorporation. verify that assertion is sometimes difficult or impossible. The claim ment organization in America is so well and substantially authenticated that none but the captious will essay controversion, yet age has not brought senility to this admirable organiza-tion, its energy is not withered, its for attraction blasted. It would seem that Mr Robinson, senior, bad, when he originated nearly seventy years ago, his amusement venture, and laved it in the fabled font of Ponce de Leon and thus bestowed.

The Bluefield Journal is revived. Spring Scready for inspective of the show was the "greatest on earth" sixty nine years ago, when it first sprang into being, now, though it has reached within a single year of the allotted ago of man, it still holds unchallenged that proud distinction. Through storm and calea, through sunshine and rain, 'buffeting with sturdy vigor and beating back the cyclones of opposition, always progressing in prosperity, it comes before us in this glorious year of 1894 a very colossus among its compeers. Not content with showing the best and biggors at the continent, not content with exhibiting the best and biggors and beating of the show was a Child shaced as a weekly under a new management.
